

NOVEMBER 2025 NEWSLETTER

We kicked off the rally season this month at Riverside RV Resort in Arcadia, as many of the regulars had yet to return to Florida from their summer travels in time for an October rally. Attendees were the Marquarts, Scudos, Fantellis, Trerices, and Stwalley/Blasko. We were pleased that Jack and Jean Fantelli were able to join us again. Jack has had health challenges but is now much improved and in good spirits. The Girvin's planned to be there but had mechanical issues with their coach so just came by car for Saturday. The weather was very nice and the park is quite nice as well.

We were assigned sites close to each other with restrooms and showers nearby. The clubhouse was a considerable distance away and did not offer a kitchen so we decided to enjoy happy hours and meals beside the coach of our hosts – Kim and Howard Trerice. After sundown we were joined by a battalion of mosquitos that we valiantly fended off with citronella candles.

The weekend was very casual as the park was in an isolated area some distance from central Arcadia and only one participant brought a car. Everyone kicked back, exchanged tales of their summer adventures and enjoyed time together.

Howard and Kim spoiled everyone with elaborate vittles including a wonderful breakfast Saturday and an even more special dinner featuring chateaubriand grilled to perfection. So we were “eatin’ good in the neighborhood”, as Applebees likes to say.

We’re still experiencing attrition with a couple more members dropping out lately. So please take any opportunity you may have to introduce the club to RVers you meet. With membership down to 15 coaches now, new members would be most welcome. We want to express our sincere appreciation to Sue Pan for her long and excellent service as the Sun Roamers Sunshine person. She and Ed will be missed – as will our other now former members.

Next month we’ll be at Camelot in Malabar once again for our annual holiday rally. Please let Wagon Master John Marquart know as soon as possible if you’ll be joining us. You only need to tell John – do not contact Camelot. Our annual board and general membership meetings will be held there, as usual. Let us know if there is a topic you would like addressed. There will also be an election for board positions (President, Vice President & Wagon Master, Secretary, Treasurer, National Director and Alternate National Director). Please advise Nominating Committee Chair Jack Fantelli if you are interested in joining the board.
