

DECEMBER 2025 NEWSLETTER

With Thanksgiving already behind us and Christmas rapidly approaching, we held our traditional holiday rally at Camelot RV Resort in Malabar. Attendees were John & Nancy Marquart, Bob & Denise Scudo, Jack & Jean Fantelli, Carolyn DeBrower, Howard and Kimberly Terrice, Gordon & Niki Girvin, and Dave Stwalley & Marcia Blasko. The weather was very nice (with some showers overnight). We always enjoy coming to Camelot where we can all park our RVs in a circle with great views of the intracoastal waterway.

Thursday's happy hour started in the circle among our RVs but segued into the clubhouse after dark. Our usual light snacks were enhanced to more substantial stuff as the usual Camelot sponsored dinner shifted to Friday.

Friday's happy hour started in the circle with byo beverages and light snacks. Then we moved into the club house where Camelot again graciously invited us to join in its weekly dinner. The main course was pizza this time, supplemented by salad. After dinner most of us stayed and enjoyed a few rounds of Herd Mentality (aka MOO) – a new trivia game Nancy hosted. We finished the evening with a game of Left-Right Center. Winners included Kim, Howard and Nancy. Great fun!

Saturday morning Niki & Gordon's Mini Cooper tire had gone flat. A member of Camelot's staff recommended a repair shop - Glenn's Tire & Service on US 1 in Palm Bay. They made quick work of the repair at a fair price.

Saturday morning the hosts provided a nice breakfast after which we held our Board meeting and annual member meeting. All incumbent Board members agreed to continue in their positions which are noted at the end of this newsletter. Sue Pan, who has long been our Sunshine Committee Chair is leaving the club and Niki Girvin volunteered to add that role to her duties as Secretary.

During the day some visited, others relaxed and a couple of the more intrepid members went for a hike. Carolyn introduced her new furry friend Ollie who was quite mellow and got along well with everyone. Niki & Gordon showed off their new Maine Coon kittens that are 11 months old.

Saturday's happy hour again started in the circle then quickly moved to the club house. Light appetizers were soon followed by dinner including grilled turkey from grill master Dave and ham provided by Jean plus sweet potatoes, stuffing, salads and rolls – among other things. Dessert included pies and cake. Needless to say, no one left hungry.

Dinner was followed by our traditional gift exchange orchestrated by Nancy's artful reading of a version of Twas the Night Before Christmas with words inserted to keep the wrapped gifts shuffling between members. Everyone was in high spirits after a very enjoyable evening. Sunday brought the usual light breakfast after which everyone wished one another Happy Holidays and headed back home.

We're becoming a rather small (exclusive?) group. Please invite any RVers you meet or know to be guests at our rallies and help recruit new members. Business cards are available for you to distribute.

We learned lately that contact information for our March and April rallies has changed from what appears in the season rally schedule. The new websites and phone numbers are:

Palm Breeze <https://www.palmbreezervresort.com> 941-621-3717.

Canopy Oaks <https://www.resortatcanopyoaks.com> 863-213-0346.

Please reserve soon. Note that the Sun Roamers had to put up deposits with these resorts. You will pay the remaining balance due to the resort when you reserve your site and reimburse the Sun Roamers for your share of the deposit by sending a check (payable to the Sun Roamers) to Denise Scudo.
